

What do you propose as the name of the New ABSS High School?	Why do you feel that this should be the name of the New ABSS High School?
Alamance High	Because it keep controversy out of it. Not named after anyone/anything that someone can someday find offensive.
Alamance High School	Covers the whole county and there will be a mixture of kids that go here
Alexander Mebane High School	Because it's in Mebane and that is who Mebane was named for
Central Alamance High School	All of our other high schools flow with the area. Eastern, Western, and Southern. This high school is being made to stop the flood to Eastern and Southern from Hawfields and the "central" part of Alamance.
Central High School	Because it is located pretty centrally in the county
Charles Kernodle Memorial High School	Dr. Kernodle was a staple to the entire Alamance County community and was highly respected in all facets of our school system and athletics.
Claud Dover High School [1]	Mr. Dover was a High School teacher at the old Mebane High School and Principle at Eastern Alamance High School. He inspired many students of all cultures and respected by all students and teachers under him. [2]
Countryway high school	Feels good to be out in the country and quiet
Covington High School	The Covington family has lived in this area for generations, as they continue to. The family makes up a large stretch of land in the area and a huge part of the community.
Either Southeast Alamance or Hawfields High	SE would make sense because of the other directional school names in county. Hawfields would be the name of the community and would fit with Western Middle/Western HS etc
Harriet Tubman High School	Gives honor and respect to an abolitionist and acknowledges the diversity of the community
Haw River High School	The Haw River was the source for the economic development in Alamance County. After the mills closed, it continues to be a symbol of revitalization in our county with the major renovations at the Saxapahaw mills (that have sparked more major renovations in the county), the parks and rec development around the river, and the connection the river makes to other parts of our state. Like the school, the river nourishes so many different lives and creates a multitude of opportunities. They are both symbols of growth, development, renewal, and strength.
Haw River High School	It's not named after a person, but not as bland as a direction like Southeast. And "Haw River High" just flows well.
Hawfield High school or Southeast High school	Location
Hawfields	Hawfields was first populated by Ulster Irish and Western African immigrants as early as the 17th century but a firm establishment was not achieved until 1740–1750 and was originally called "Haw Old Fields" by the settlers because of the Haw River which runs partially through Hawfields and neighboring Mebane. Haw River itself is named for the Sissipihaw Indians who settled in the entire county of Alamance which is named for a Sissipihaw word for the blue mud in the riverbed. In it's time, it was an area that included everyone.

Hawfields High School	Please don't name it after a person. Everyone is important.
Hawfields High School	Preserve the small community name which is being overrun by the surrounding cities.
Hawfields High School	Because it is in the Hawfields district and we have never had our own high school.
Hawfields High School	It makes sense.
Hawfields High School	The name specifies the geographic locality of the school. It does not honor any individual so that the potential for the name offending anyone now or in the future is negated. [3]
Hawfields High School	It is historical name for the area and will allow students to transition seamlessly from Hawfields Middle to High School. The recommended mascot is Hawfield High Hawks or Hornets.
Hawfields High School	To connect it to the community and the local middle school. Similar to how western and southern named their middle schools. It should not be named after a person unless land was donated. Please do not use a location like southeast. Make the mascot the wolves since the husky (middle school mascot) is part wolf.
Hawfields High School	This is what the area is known as.
Hawfields High School	I feel like that should be the name of high school because it's the closest to Hawfields middle school.
Hawfields high school	Because it's in same location/vicinity as the middle school
Hawfields High School	That entire location is known as the Hawfields area, so it just makes sense.
HawRiver High School	Location
Henderson Scott High School , Henry A Scott High School, or Anderson Scott High School	Beginning with Henderson Scott who built a large house in the Hawfields community with the intention of housing students in his home, members of the Scott family have been actively involved in public education. Southeast Alamance High School	To be consistent with the naming of other "county" schools
Southeast Alamance High School	Between Southern and Eastern

Swepsonville High School	The school is in the Town of Swepsonville future ETJ. The Swepsonville Volunteer Fire Department will be the ones to respond in case of an emergency. Also many high school aged students that reside in the Swepsonville Community will attend and graduate there.
Swepsonville High School	It would be cool to pay homage to the small town of Swepsonville that the new high would be very close to
The Johnson Highschool OR South East highschool	Terry Johnson is great sheriff and would be an awesome dedication to him. The second one is a more realistic name y'all would go with.
Walter Y. Boyd High School	He is a locally well known historian and former attorney of the area.
Wilson High School	Today, the Alamance community has lost a great man and pillar of the community. Bryan Wilson and his family have been a long standing part for as long as I can remember. Please consider honoring him.
Wyatt Outlaw H.S.	Long overdue recognition of his historic public service and ultimate sacrifice
Wyatt Outlaw High School	He was a public servant who was brutally murdered. This is the first step in reconciling that painful history.
Wyatt Outlaw High School	Wyatt Outlaw (1816-1870) Wyatt Outlaw was a political leader of African and European ancestry in his native Alamance County from 1866 until his murder February 26, 1870. As an organizer of the Union League and town commissioner for Graham, the county seat, he worked closely with fellow Republicans to encourage freedmen to vote, and his cabinet shop was a gathering place for white and black workers. He spoke against violence and was not accused of any. A member of the White Brotherhood/ Invisible Empire familiar with Outlaw's killers testified that Outlaw was hanged because he was a politician, with no other crime alleged. The limb for the hanging pointed to the Republican-staffed courthouse.

What do you propose as the name of the New ABSS High School?	Why do you feel that this should be the name of the New ABSS High School?
Wyatt Outlaw high school	Constable Wyatt Outlaw was lynched by members of a KKK-like group known as the White Brotherhood in retaliation for a prior incident in which members of the group were fired upon during a midnight-ride of intimidation around Courthouse Square. Constable Outlaw had previously been appointed as the constable of Graham to organize night patrols to prevent such rides. Although it is not known who fired at the masked riders, a rumor was started that Constable Outlaw had fired the shots. On the night of February 26th, 1870, a group of approximately 60 masked men broke down Constable Outlaw's door and forcibly took him from his home. They hung him from a tree approximately 20 yards from the courthouse in what is now Sesquicentennial Park. Several men were indicted for Constable Outlaw's murder but none of them were ever tried. Constable Outlaw was an escaped slave who enlisted in the United States Colored Troops 2nd Cavalry during the Civil War. He was survived by his wife, two children, and mother.
Wyatt Outlaw High School	Wyatt Outlaw was the first black elected official in the US and served his country in the war. He overcame odds and adversity to rise to a position of power that was unjustly taken from him by assassination. We should (finally and at least) honor his service, dedication and commitment by recognizing his importance and impact.
